

SiLC ANNUAL FORUM

Thursday 19th April 2018

Royal Society of Chemistry, Burlington House, London, W1J 0BA

12:00

Registration and Lunch

13:00

Welcome Address

Paul Burden, SiLC Chair and Principal, Environmental and Ordnance Liability Management at the Ministry of Defense

BGS Geoscience in the Redevelopment of UK Brownfields: Examples of Innovation and Knowledge Exchange

Darren Beriro, Geoscientist at the British Geological Survey

Update on Phase 2 of the Category 4 Screening Levels Project

Hannah White, SAGTA

State of Brownfield 2018, Following the Launch of our Latest Research into the Brownfield Registers

Rebecca Pullinger, Planning Campaigner at Campaign to Protect Rural England

National Quality Mark Scheme Panel Discussion: Take up and take off

Nicola Harries, Project Director at CL:AIRE

Helen Peters, Legal Director at Pinsent Masons

Phil Crowcroft, Technical Fellow at ERM

Angela Haslam, Senior Advisor at the Environment Agency

Frank Evans, Head of Operations at National Grid Property

Anita Metelko, Senior Land Quality Officer at Dudley Council

Compared by Paul Burden, Principal, Environmental and Ordnance Liability Management at the Ministry of Defense

Land Transactions and the Importance of Robust Data, Expert Review and Consultancy Appointments – an Environmental Lawyers Perspective

Helen Peters, Legal Director at Pinsent Masons

Asbestos in Soils: A Part 2a Case Study

James Macfarlane, Asbestos Manager at QDS Contracting

Closing Summary

Paul Burden, SiLC Chair and Principal, Environmental and Ordnance Liability Management at Ministry of Defense

INSITUATIONS OF SPECIALISTS IN LAND CONDITION

GEOTECHNICAL ENGINEERING

Geotechnical Engineering Ltd is the UK's largest privately-owned ground investigation contractor, renowned for providing a range of innovative ground investigation services for thousands of land-based projects since 1961. From Utility Surveying to all aspects of ground investigation and having our own UKAS accredited laboratory, we are proud to call ourselves industry experts.

www.geoeng.co.uk/

PEROXYCHEM

PeroxyChem is a speciality international chemicals company whose Environmental Solutions division provides remediation practitioners with an unparalleled portfolio of field-proven and innovative remediation technologies. These chemistries are designed to support soil, sediment and groundwater treatment in-situ & ex-situ, plus dedicated support staff to help develop remedial designs and solutions.

www.peroxychem.com/markets/environment/soil-and-groundwater

LITHOS

Uncertainty below the surface is where a project's risk is highest. Lithos, a highly skilled Geoenvironmental consultancy, offers a personal touch giving clients direct access to senior technical specialists. We offer bespoke investigations to reduce risk and uncertainty, providing pragmatic, reliable and definitive solutions, saving clients time and money.

www.lithosconsulting.co.uk/

MOTT MACDONALD

Mott MacDonald is a management, engineering and development consultancy delivering solutions that add value to many areas of everyday life – from transport, energy, buildings, water and the environment to health and education, industry and communications.

www.mottmac.com/

SiLC would like to express its ongoing thanks to its active assessors who continue to make the association a success; Chris Barrett, Tim Blower, Roger Clark, James Clay, Margaret Cliff, Eric Cooper, Phil Crowcroft, Kevin Eaton, Rob Frost, Shaun Grey, Liz hart, Lisa Hathway, Tom Henman, Mark Hill, Robert Hodges, Dr. Anwen Hughes, Doug Laidler, Hugh Mallett, Colin Macdonald, Anita Metelko, Richard Owen, Helen Smith, Mike Summersgill, Alex Staton, Jonathan Steeds, Peter Witherington, Ian Mead, Allen Murray, Caroline Jones, Alan Thomas, Kevin Leahy, Jenny Lightfoot and Lucy Thomas.

INSITUATIONS OF SPECIALISTS IN LAND CONDITION